APPOINTMENT OF SUPERVISOR: Candidates must nominate a supervisor for the online examination at the time of enrolment.

Your supervisor must meet the criteria detailed below. The nominated supervisor is appointed (and approved) by AIRA to supervise the examination(s) listed on the enrolment form only. If the approved supervisor is unable to attend the examination, a substitute supervisor must be approved by AIRA before the examination date.

The nominated supervisor will receive notification from AIRA of examination details including access information, trouble shooting tips, and an online exam supervisor kit. This will be emailed approximately 5 days before the scheduled examination date.

The supervisor's compulsory declaration below must also be signed and dated by the nominated supervisor.

Who can supervise an examination?

- o a suitable person at a government recognised tertiary institution or school, (e.g. Teacher, Senior Administrator, Librarian)
- o a suitable person at the Australian Consulate (e.g. a Training or Education Officer), a Minister of Religion, Justice of the Peace, Doctor
- o Lawyer, Accountant, Police Officer, Human Resources Manager
- o a Compliance Officer
- o the HR Manager or Training Manager at the student's place of work

The supervisor must not be related to, reside with or be a work colleague (HR Manager or Training Manager excepted) of the examination candidate. Please note that students are not permitted to sit an examination in their own home, unless the student has special needs, and is approved by AIRA.
