AIRA Announces the 2024 Best Practice Investor Relations Awards Winners

The 2024 Australasian Investor Relations Association (AIRA) Awards winners were announced last night at the Annual AIRA Best Practice Investor Relations Awards.

AIRA's awards recognise listed entities that have excelled in Investor Relations over the past year. Winners were determined, based on voting by domestic and international equities analysts and fund managers.

"Congratulations to Macquarie Group Limited for winning two awards including Overall Best IR by a Company in the S&P/ASX 200, and Best IR by a Company in the S&P/ASX 50. These awards are recognition of the outstanding efforts by all IR team members from winning and short-listed companies", AIRA's CEO, Ian Matheson said. "The investment community determines the winners, and we are grateful to them for voting again this year."

In addition to the awards for listed entities, AIRA has four sell-side awards, to recognise the contribution and importance of the broking community, in particular corporate access and sales teams within investment banks and stockbroking firms who assist companies' access and connect with investors around the world. These award winners were determined based on voting from investor relations professionals from listed entities.
